Tornado Catastrophe – April 27 & beyond through May

On April 27, the state of Alabama was ground zero for a widespread outbreak of deadly and devastating tornadoes. The first wave hit before 4am and the last round of severe weather hit late that evening. We had wall-to-wall severe weather coverage on air and online all day long. It turned out to be a historic outbreak of long-track, super cell tornadoes that in the end left more than 250 people dead in the state of Alabama and many more injured. The tornadoes did millions of dollars in damage to homes, businesses, schools and churches. Most of north Alabama was without power for at least 5 days, some areas longer. Our team produced extensive continuous coverage in the immediate aftermath of the storms. We carried daily Emergency Management Agency briefings to communicate critical information to the public. We carried a live church service on Sunday, May 1, from the former site of the Phil Campbell Church of God. The church was leveled by an EF-5 tornado. Parishioners gathered there to thank God for those who survived the storms and to pray for the recovery of their community and state. Out of the aftermath of the storms, a new daily 6:30pm newscast was born. Initially, that newscast focused solely on “After the Storm” coverage. That newscast continues to be produced. But, now also features other news of local, state and regional significance. Throughout the month of May, our coverage was primarily focused on tornado aftermath, relief and recovery.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 04/02/11 PREEMPTION
- 04/09/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY - “Name, Rank and Serial Killer?” - a report on Colonel Russell Williams, a highly-regarded Canadian military officer, and a crime spree that began with a series of bizarre thefts of lingerie and ultimately led to the discovery that he was a serial killer. In 2007, a series of crimes occurred in and around the town of Tweed, Ontario, where Col. Williams lived. In 2009, Laurie Massicotte, one of Williams’ neighbors, was sexually terrorized in her home. Shortly afterwards, Marie France Comeau, a corporal at Trenton Airbase, where Williams was stationed, was beaten, raped, and suffocated to death. There were no leads in either case. Two months later, Jessica Lloyd went missing in the nearby town of Belleville, and authorities discovered their first solid clues: tire tracks and boot prints. In 2010, Col. Williams was stopped at a random roadblock. Police noticed his tire tracks matched the ones found near Jessica Lloyd’s home. He was brought in for questioning and the ensuing battle of wits between the colonel and Det. Sergeant Jim Smith, the police interrogator from the Ontario Provincial Police, would uncover the details of his chilling double life. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed, and told police where they could find videos of the crimes. The most surprising evidence however, were the trophies Williams kept to commemorate his crimes: thousands of underpants, bras and camisoles, found in his garage, and photos of him modeling the items. Authorities also found child pornography on his computer. In a deal that almost fell apart over the pornography issue, Williams pleaded guilty to the murders of Comeau and Lloyd, to two sexual assaults and to eighty-two counts of breaking and entering -- the bizarre underwear thefts that started it all. The judge sentenced him to the maximum, life behind bars, which he is serving at the penitentiary in Kingston, Ontario. Although the Canadian government stripped Williams of his rank, burned his uniform and crushed his car, he got to keep his air force pension. Concluding onscreen graphic: Laurie Massicotte is planning to sue the Ontario police for failing to protect her from Russell Williams. Interviewed: Laurie Massicotte, Anne Marsand Cook, victims; Tim Appleby, crime reporter who is writing a book about Williams; Angus Watt, retired general; Paul Ciolino, 48 HOURS consultant; Andy Lloyd, brother of Jessica Lloyd; Jeff Farquhar, college roommate; Alain Plante, ex-boyfriend of Marie France Comeau. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Susan Mallie)

- 04/16/11 “Only Casey Knows” - a followup to “The Untold Story of Caylee Anthony” (OAD: 10/17/09). Caylee Anthony was a 2-year-old who went missing in 2008, only to be found dead six months later near her grandparents home in Orlando, Florida, where she resided with her 22-year-old mother Casey Anthony. Now, as the trial is about to begin, 48 HOURS takes an inside look at her defense. Her attorneys, Jose Baez and Cheney Mason, discuss issues regarding her defense. Their team also consists of forensic expert Larry Kobilinsky and entomologist Tim Huntington who say there is not enough forensic evidence to prove Casey’s guilt, and even express doubts as to whether Caylee was actually murdered. Noted forensic anthropologist and novelist Kathy Reichs is also a defense expert who speaks about the case. Jury consultant Richard Gabriel says the most difficult aspect of the case will be finding Florida residents who are impartial because of all the attention the case has garnered: many are convinced that Casey Anthony was responsible for her daughter’s death. Florida attorney general Pam Bondi, a former prosecutor herself, speaks about the prosecution, and is convinced the state has enough evidence for a conviction. There also has been speculation that the defense will try to pin the murder on Casey’s father, George Anthony. Also interviewed are forensic expert and former member of the defense team, Linda Kenney Baden who comments on this; and fiancé-turned-friend Jesse Grund. Includes previously seen interviews with Cindy and George Anthony, parents of Casey Anthony. Concluding onscreen graphic: Opening arguments in the trial are expected to begin May 17. The judge has the right to have jurors consider a lesser charge than first-degree murder. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ira Sutow, Jonathan Leach, Gail Abbott Zimmerman)
- 04/23/11 “Grave Injustice” - a report on the case of Anthony Graves, who spent eighteen years -- twelve of them on death row -- in a Texas prison for murders he did not commit. In 1992, the Davis family, four of them young children, were found bludgeoned, shot and stabbed to death, in the charred remains of the family home in Somerville, Texas. Texas Rangers quickly zeroed in on Robert Carter: father of the youngest victim, 4-year-old Jason, he was recently served with papers for child support and Rangers believed he wanted his boy dead. Carter eventually admitted that he was at the crime scene, but said that another man, Anthony Graves, committed the murders. There was little to connect Graves to Carter or to the Davis family, but justice was swift, and Anthony Graves was convicted of six counts of capital murder and sentenced to death. He always proclaimed his innocence. Carter was also convicted. In 2000, while in the death chamber, Robert Carter took sole responsibility for the murders. In fact, he had been saying much the same for years. Then in 2002, the case caught the eye of Professor Nicole Casarez and her journalism students. After a four-year investigation, the students concluded that Anthony Graves was a innocent man. Texas Monthly editor Pam Coloff, who herself spent months investigating the case, reached the same conclusion. The students turned their findings over to Graves’ attorneys, helping to trigger a chain of legal maneuvers that, in 2010, freed him from prison. Now, he is fighting to get compensation for his wrongful incarceration. Concluding onscreen text graphic: Due to a technicality in the wording on his release papers, Texas is refusing to compensate Anthony Graves. Otherwise, he would be entitled to $1.4 million for wrongful incarceration. Includes interviews with Anthony Graves; Nicole Casarez, professor, University of St. Thomas, Houston; Pam Coloff, Texas Monthly editor; Charles Sebesta (District Attorney); Kelly Siegler (District Attorney); Meghan Bingham (student); Arthur Curry (Graves’ brother); Katherine Scardino (attorney); Jimmy Phillips (attorney); Roy Rueter (Graves’ friend); Otto Hanak (investigator). (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Jenna Jackson)

04/30/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY - “Last Chance for Justice” - a report on the investigation into the 1980 murder of Marilyn McIntyre, who was found dead in her Columbus, Wisconsin home. Her husband, Lane McIntyre, had returned home from work that morning and found her body. As police checked into his alibi, he named his friend Curt Forbes as a potential suspect. The investigation found that Forbes was out that night trying to pick up women and even showed up at his girlfriend Debby Attleson’s home at 4 am, but everything was circumstantial. Forbes abruptly left town. Suspicion shifted back to Lane because he had taken out a life insurance policy less than a week before Marilyn’s death. Neither man was arrested and the investigation came to a halt. Forbes married Debby Attleson. The case went unsolved for thirty years, until Marilyn’s niece -- upset because her mother, Carolyn Rahn (Marilyn’s twin sister) was distraught and could not get over the murder -- decided to call the Columbus Police Department. Instead, she accidentally contacted the Columbia County Sheriff’s Department, who were unaware of an unsolved murder in their county and decided to launch an investigation. In 2007, the case was reopened. Blood and hair samples taken in 1980 were sent to the Wisconsin State Crime Lab for DNA testing. Lane McIntyre was not a match for the DNA evidence, but when police examined a sample from Curt Forbes, he was then listed as a possible contributor. Detectives spent the next two years sorting through evidence and re-interviewing witnesses. Curt’s wife Debby now admitted that she saw blood on his shirt on the night of the murder. Curt was then arrested for Marilyn’s murder and in November, 2010, the trial began. He was found guilty of first-degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. Concluding onscreen text graphic: Curt Forbes will be eligible for parole in 2020. Debby Forbes divorced Curt after his sentencing. She is now engaged to someone else. Included interviews with: Lane McIntyre and Chris McIntyre (Marilyn’s husband and grown son); Carolyn Rahn (sister); Terra Doucette (niece); Brenda Daniels (sister); Debby Attleson Forbes (wife of Curt Forbes); Lee Erdmann (former Police Chief); Det. Lt. Wayne Smith (Columbia County Sheriff); Lori Heft (former girlfriend of Forbes); Betty Klentz (neighbor); David Wambach (Assistant Attorney General); Mike Forbes (brother of Curt Forbes). 48 HOURS MYSTERY

05/07/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Facebook Detectives” - A report about three Texas housewives, Tammye Markle, Joni Shannon and Tina Wiley, who call themselves the “Facebook Detectives” and who used the Internet to try to find their friend Lisa Stone, who disappeared from her Dallas home in June 2010. The four women had been friends in high school, but now kept in touch with each other via Facebook. Lisa posted every day, and her friends became worried when she abruptly stopped posting in June 2010. They confronted Lisa’s former life partner Sherry Henry, who said that Lisa was out of town. That is also what she told the police. The three friends did not believe her and feared for Lisa’s safety. They formed a Facebook page dedicated to finding Lisa. One evening when Joni Shannon was going back to question Sherry Henry, she realized that Sherry was in the car next to hers and she followed her. Sherry pulled in to a 7-11 parking lot, took things out of her car and put them into a dumpster. When Sherry left, Joni examined the dumpster and found personal items which had belonged to Lisa, including her birth certificate. When the women brought this new information to the attention of the police, they agreed to take another look at the case. The police confronted Sherry Henry, who still insisted that she did not know where Lisa was. She said that Lisa had financial problems and was dependent on medication for depression. Sherry claimed she was also using cocaine. Sherry said Lisa often went off for a few days, and that is why she didn’t file a missing persons report. Homicide detective Jim Gallagher believes that Lisa Stone is dead. He feels that Sherry Henry is a person of interest in the case, but does not have enough evidence against her. Sherry Henry insists she is innocent and does not know where Lisa is. Lisa’s friends are continuing their investigation on Facebook. Onscreen text graphics: The Facebook Detectives have a foundation helping others to use the power and community of Facebook to find missing people. Interviewed: Tammye Markle, Tina Wiley, Joni Shannon; Sherry Henry; Juanita Burris and Susan Scott, neighbors of Lisa; Pat James, friend of Lisa; Detective Jim Gallagher of the Dallas Police Department. 48 HOURS - “The Boy Next Door” - a report on the hunt for a serial killer suspected of murdering three young women from Los Angeles, California to Chicago, Illinois. In 2001, Los Angeles resident Ashley Ellerin was planning to attend a Grammy party with actor Ashton Kutcher. When Kutcher arrived at her home, she never answered the door; it turned out that she had been brutally stabbed to death the night before. Her friends directed the police to Michael Gargiulo, a former boxer and aspiring actor who was working as a repairman -- friends said that he was oddly fixated with her. In the course of the police investigation, the police learned Gargiulo was being investigated for another crime -- the unsolved murder of Tricia Paccaccio, who had lived in Gargiulo’s former Glenview, Illinois neighborhood. Due to lack of evidence, he had never been charged, and he left for California. Five years after the Ellerin murder, another woman, Maria Bruno, was found dead just steps away from the apartment where Gargiulo lived. In that case, detectives found a blue cotton bootie, with a drop of Maria’s blood on the bottom. In 2008, a Santa Monica woman was attacked, but survived. Blood evidence and DNA (which had been filed in the National Database by Cook County Illinois authorities) led investigators to Michael Gargiulo, who was living just across the alley from where the woman was attacked. Police arrested Gargiulo and the investigation led to a connection to all of the cases involving the several young women. Gargiulo insists he is innocent. Onscreen text graphic: Michael Gargiulo is scheduled to stand trial for the murders of Ashley Ellerin and Maria Bruno in California in 2012. If convicted, he will face the death penalty. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 05/20/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “House of Secrets” - On September 4, 2006, Kathy Wangler, wife of anesthesiologist Dr. Mark Wangler, died from carbon monoxide poisoning in their home in Lima, Ohio. Their thirty-year marriage had been falling apart; three years later, in 2009, investigators came to the conclusion that Dr. Wangler had murdered his wife. They did not believe his story that the death was caused due to a faulty water heater. On the night in question, Mark was sleeping downstairs with the window open and had a fan blowing. Fourteen months after Kathy's death, Mark had gotten remarried to Esther Erkman, a woman he met at church. Esther, along with Mark and Kathy's two son's, believed him to be innocent. Kathy's mother and sisters felt that since Mark was familiar with gasses that he was able to plan and execute the perfect murder. Mark was arrested and the case was brought to trial. The jury found him guilty of aggravated murder and he was sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen text graphics: Mark Wangler will be eligible for parole in twenty-five years. - 05/21/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY - “Follow the Money” - a second update to “Blood and Money” (OAD: 11/18/06, updated 07/14/07). In April 2006, Andrew Kissel, a real estate mogul who had embezzled more than $40 million, was found tied up and stabbed to death in the basement of his Greenwich, Connecticut mansion, just days before he was to plead guilty for his crimes. He was said to have never recovered from the Hong Kong murder of his brother Robert (in a case which was dubbed the “Milkshake Murder”). Andrew began spending lots of money -- money that wasn't his. He stole millions before he was arrested and charged with bank fraud. Nearly two years after his death, his driver and confidant, Carlos Trujillo, was arrested for the crime. In November 2010, Trujillo went on trial for murder and attempted murder. Trujillo had been the last person to see Andrew Kissel alive, but police had no viable case against him, until Trujillo's own cousin, petty thief Lenny Trujillo, came forward. Lenny said he helped Carlos plan the murder. The motive was that after federal authorities froze Kissel's assets, members of the Trujillo family had been enlisted by Kissel to help launder money; but in the process, $200,000 of Kissel's money disappeared, and Kissel was about to turn Trujillo in. After a ten-day trial, with Lenny as the star witness against Carlos, Carlos was found not guilty of murder and the jury was deadlocked on the charge of attempted murder. Authorities planned to re-try him, but three months after being found not guilty, Carlos Trujillo pleaded guilty to attempted murder. He still maintained his innocence, and claimed that a plea bargain was a practical decision in order to get credit for time already served. Authorities are satisfied, although they believe that they will truly never really know what really happened to Andrew Kissel. Onscreen text graphics: After serving his six year sentence, Carlos Trujillo will be deported to Colombia. Interviewed: Steven Garfinkel, retired FBI special investigator; Philip Russell, Andrew Kissel's attorney; Pasquale Iorfino, Greenwich Police Detective; Carlos Trujillo; Carol Horton, Danny Williams, Frank Shea, Trudy Samra, friends of the Kissels; Brian Howie, producer of a play that Andrew invested in; Andrew Wong, journalist who covered the story of Robert Kissel's murder for The Standard in Hong Kong; Andrew Tanzer, journalist and neighbor of Robert; Peter Chamberlain, board member in a luxury high rise where Andrew was the building's treasurer; Nancy Walkley, title search attorney; Vito Colucci, private investigator; Lindy Urso, defense attorney for Carlos Trujillo; Paul Ferencek, prosecutor; Mark Sherman, defense attorney for Lenny Trujillo. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/28/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Whole Truth” - a report on the 26-year effort of Bruce Lisker to overturn his conviction for the 1983 murder of his mother. In March 1983, 17-year-old Bruce Lisker hysterically called 911 to tell Los Angeles police that he had found his mother, Dorka Lisker, beaten severely and stabbed in her Sherman Oaks home. Police arrived to find him hysterical and on drugs. They arrested him, and a young detective, Andrew Monsue, proceeded to build a case against Bruce. Bruce’s father believed that his son was innocent, and urged police to investigate Bruce’s friend Mike Ryan, a 15-year-old with a criminal record, who had gone to the house to see Bruce’s mother the day before. But Monsue focused on Bruce, and presented what he maintained was evidence that Bruce was guilty. Bruce was tried as an adult; the jury found him guilty and he was sentenced to 16 years to life. In 1999, Bruce, still in prison, hired ex-cop-turned-private-investigator Paul Ingels to help him overturn his conviction. With the aid of then-Sgt. Jim Gavin of the Los Angeles Police Department, Ingels discovered that the evidence against Bruce had apparently been fabricated. Ingels and Gavin gave their findings to the LA Times, and on May 22, 2005, the newspaper ran an article questioning the evidence that had put Lisker behind bars. Two months later, a federal judge granted a hearing to consider new evidence in the case. Four years passed, and in August 2009 a federal judge ruled that Lisker had been convicted on false evidence and must be retried or set free. On August 17, 2009, he was set free on bail. Six weeks later, he went back to court, at which time the prosecutor said that too much time has passed to retry the case and they had no choice but to dismiss the charges. One year later, the state asked the court to return Lisker to prison based on a technicality arguing that Lisker was late filing his petition for release. A judge rejected that motion. Concluding onscreen graphics: Bruce Lisker remains free...for now. Update: Concluding onscreen text graphics for the 05/28/11 rebroadcast: On August 13, 2011, the second anniversary of his release, Bruce Lisker is getting married. Paul Ingels will be his best man. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 06/04/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "My Mother's Murder" - On the morning of June 5, 2005, Noura Jackson, a teenager, called the police to report that she had discovered the body of her mother, Jennifer Jackson, in their Memphis, Tennessee home. Jennifer, a 39-year-old divorced single parent, was a successful bond trader, who provided Noura with a generous lifestyle. Due to the brutality of her murder, police initially considered a possible link between Jennifer's death and the unsolved shooting death of her estranged husband, Nazmi Hassanieh, seventeen months prior; they also focused on Jennifer's ex-boyfriend, Mark Irvin, a minister, who had an alibi. Although there was a lack of physical evidence at the crime scene, Noura's conflicting accounts of her activities in the hours before she called 911, a gap in her cell phone usage, and an early morning trip to Walgreen's to purchase first aid supplies for a cut on her hand, caused police to focus on her as a suspect. While none of the DNA at the crime scene matched Noura's, she was eventually charged with her mother's murder. Four years later, at her trial, prosecutors alleged that the seemingly good relationship between mother and daughter was strained due to Jennifer's criticism of Noura's hard-partying lifestyle and charged that this was the motive for the crime. The jury found Noura guilty of second-degree murder -- she still maintains her innocence. Onscreen graphics: Noura Jackson was sentenced to 20 years in prison. She will be 39 years old when released -- the same age her mother was when she was murdered. Interviewed: Noura Jackson; family friends Susan Tobey, Renea McMillan, Ansley Larsson, Dana Frederick; Sergeant Tim Helldorfer with the Memphis Police Department; Memphis detectives Lieutenant Mark Miller and Sergeant W.D. Merritt; Sergeant Connie Justice, the first officer to interview Noura; Valerie

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Taken: The Amber Dubois Story” - a report on the February 13, 2009 disappearance of Amber Dubois, just blocks from Escondido High School in Southern California. 48 HOURS examines the permanent impact her disappearance has had on her family, even after the discovery and conviction of the murderer. Initially, with no clues as to her whereabouts, investigators began to look at her mother Carrie McGonigle’s live-in boyfriend, Dave Cave as a person of interest. Carrie herself and Amber’s father, Moe Dubois, soon began believing that Cave was responsible for Amber’s disappearance. Almost a year later, another teenage girl, Chelsea King, went missing. Chelsea had been running just ten miles from where Amber disappeared. Police quickly found Chelsea’s underwear with DNA evidence that would lead them to the arrest of convicted sex offender John Gardner, who was out on parole. Gardner was then also identified by another woman, Candice Moncayo, as the man who attacked her on the same jogging trail just two months earlier. Then police found Chelsea’s body and Gardner was charged with her murder and the attack against Moncayo. Under interrogation and facing the death penalty for the murder of Chelsea, Gardner agreed to lead police to Amber’s body in exchange for avoiding the death penalty. John Gardner was convicted of both Amber’s and Chelsea’s murders and sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. In his exclusive interview with 48 HOURS MYSTERY, he recounted the day he murdered Amber and admitted he is the most dangerous type of sexual predator. He said he needs to be locked up forever. Onscreen graphics: Moe Dubois helped pass new laws in California that help track sex offenders and speed up police response in missing children’s cases. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Chasing the Barefoot Bandit” - A report on Colton Harris-Moore, also known as the “Barefoot Bandit,” because of his habit of committing crimes barefoot and leaving chalk outlines of his feet; and whose criminal exploits included stealing planes, guns, yachts, and even escaping to foreign countries. His exploits reminded many of legendary outlaws like Jesse James, and as news of his crimes spread beyond the Pacific Northwest, his popularity grew, even spawning Facebook fan pages. Born on Camano Island, Washington, Harris-Moore was an unpopular teen, physically neglected and mentally abused by his mother, Pam Kohler. He wanted to become a pilot, but instead turned to a life of crime at age 10, stealing laptops, cell phones, and jewelry. He was arrested and sent to a halfway house, but escaped custody and continued breaking into vacation homes and leaving his mark. He even ordered a DVD on learning to fly a plane with a stolen credit card. In 2008, he stole his first plane, crashing it 250 miles away from where he stole it, and simply walked away. He then worked in Las Vegas, then went to Canada and stole guns. In 2009, he stole his second plane, and the legend of Colton Harris-Moore was born. After stealing his third plane, the Department of Homeland Security joined in the hunt; but he still avoided capture. In 2010, he stole an airplane in Bloomington, Indiana and flew it to Abaco Island in the Bahamas, where he continued to commit break-ins. While 48 HOURS was on his trail in the Bahamas, he allegedly stole a yacht and escaped to the nearby Bahamian island of Eleuthera. He was spotted by some local teens who, knowing about the $10,000 reward offered for his capture, chased him by boat. Police joined in the hunt, and Harris-Moore was finally captured. Deported from the Bahamas, he is was returned to the U.S., where he was indicted on federal charges for stealing two planes, guns, a boat and flying without a license. He faces ten years behind bars. Onscreen graphics: Colton Harris-Moore will be arraigned Thursday in federal court. He faces additional charges in several states. Colton and his mother have not seen each other since his arrest. 06/25/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "fugitive@hotmail.com" - a report on the three-year international manhunt and eventual capture of Dr. Yazeed "Yaz" Essa, a Cleveland doctor accused of murdering his wife, Rosemarie. In February 2005, Rosemarie, the mother of Essa's two children, was in a minor car accident. She suffered no physical injuries, but she passed out and shortly afterwards died in a Cleveland hospital. Her best friend, Eva McGregor, voiced her own suspicion that Essa had tampered with the calcium supplements that Rosemarie had taken on the morning of her death. Weeks later, tests of the calcium tablets proved that she had died of cyanide poisoning. Police went to charge Essa, but he had fled from the U.S. to Canada and eventually to Beirut, Lebanon, where he hid, knowing that he could not be extradited back to the U.S. In October 2006, he went to Cyprus, a country that does have an extradition treaty with the U.S. Interpol and the FBI alerted the Cyprus police that Essa was traveling under an alias; he was apprehended at the Larnaca airport and brought in for questioning and fingerprinting. His true identity was established, and he was arrested for using a doctored passport and held in a Cyprus prison. He fought extradition for two years but was returned to the U.S. In January 2010 his trial began. His protector in the Middle East and Essa's brother, Firas, both testified that Essa had told them that he had killed his wife by putting cyanide in her calcium pills. He was found guilty of aggravated murder and sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole in twenty years.
